

NORTH OF ENGLAND TRACK & FIELD LEAGUE MATCH AT DONCASTER.

The Boston & District A.C. Senior and Under 17 team combined superbly well and showed tremendous team spirit to raise their level of performance and move into the top three positions in the second North of England League fixture at Doncaster. In a demonstration of team support throughout the full range of track and field events the "Gold Tops" finished behind league leaders Rotherham and runners up Hull to claim a fine third place on the day and retain the same position after two of the four 2009 league matches. In two events B.A.D.A.C. scored a total of 14 points. In the Womens 100m. Hurdles contest Isabelle Whitehead finished second in the A race recording 18.9 secs. and Melanie Bristow won the B event in a time of 19.9 secs.. The Womens High Jump yielded another 14 points through Emily Richardson who cleared 1.50m. for second in the A competition and Chelsea Brockett achieved 1.40m. to claim first place in the B event. In four events the "Gold Tops" amassed thirteen points starting with the first track event of the day the Mens 400m. Hurdles when Stephan Brockett A third in 66.7 secs. and Mark Bowler B first in 63.8 secs..The two male Long Jumpers added a further thirteen points when Mark Bridges was third in the A event with a leap of 6.31m. and Jake Mason claimed victory in the B contest clearing 6.22m.. The Womens 400m. Hurdles saw Isabelle Whitehead finishing third in the A race recording 72.7 secs. with Wednesday Pywovariw winning the B event in 78.3 secs. and in the Javelin competition Emily Richardson threw 27.50m. to claim third place in the A event with excellent support from Melanie Bristow who won the B contest with 26.08m.. The Mens Pole Vault yielded twelve points when Jake Brittain cleared 3.80m. for second place and Stephan Brockett finished in the same place in the B event going over 3.40m. and eleven points were added in the 110m. Hurdles race when Jake Brittain recorded 20.5 secs. for an A third and Jake Mason produced a determined 19.5 secs. and was just edged out of first place in the B race. Ten points were the reward in the Womens Pole Vault when Chelsea Brockett cleared 2.40m. for third in the A category and Melanie Bristow went over 2.20m. for the same position in the B event. A further ten points was the result in the Mens High Jump when Jake Mason cleared 1.80m. and Jake Brittain 1.75m. and in the Triple Jump with Jeremy Baily recording 12.45m. and Mark Bridges achieving 11.89m.. Three events realised nine points with the Womens Long Jumpers Wednesday Pywovariw 4.60m. and Isabelle Whitehead 4.22m. and the Triple Jumpers Isabelle Whitehead 10.09m. again and Amy Bristow 7.61m. contributing well. In the Mens Hammer youngsters Haden Brittain 35.58m. and Marc Bradbury 25.00m. impressed at senior level.

For Boston and District A.C. to clinch third team place at Doncaster there were many more admirable performances from members of the squad who all continue to rise to the challenge, raise their standards and put Boston on the map at North of England level. With two matches to go in the 2009 series the "Gold Tops" will need to continue their strong team ethic to maintain a position in the top half of the League.